NextEra Energy announces settlement rate for corporate units issued in September 2012

08/28/2015

JUNO BEACH, Fla., Aug. 28, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- NextEra Energy, Inc. (NYSE: NEE) today announced the settlement rate for the stock purchase contracts that are components of corporate units (NYSE: NEE PR O) that it issued in September 2012. Holders of the corporate units will receive 0.6287 shares of NextEra Energy common stock for each stock purchase contract that they hold, with cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional shares. The settlement rate is based upon the average of the closing price per share of NextEra Energy common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on Aug. 27, 2015.

Consequently, on Sept. 1, 2015, each holder of the corporate units on that date will, following payment of $50.00 for each unit which it holds, receive 0.6287 shares of NextEra Energy common stock for each such unit. The holders' obligations to make such payments will be satisfied with proceeds generated by the successful remarketing on Aug. 10, 2015, of the NextEra Energy Capital Holdings, Inc. debentures that formerly constituted a component of the corporate units.

Upon settlement of all outstanding stock purchase contracts, NextEra Energy will receive approximately $650 million in exchange for approximately 8.17 million shares of common stock.

On Sept. 1, 2015, each corporate unit holder of record on Aug. 31, 2015, will receive the final quarterly cash distribution of $0.736125 payable per corporate unit. In addition, holders of corporate units as of Sept. 1, 2015, will receive any remaining amounts from the treasury portfolio that was purchased in connection with the remarketing described above, as well as any earnings from the reinvestment of that treasury portfolio when it matured.
